Don't miss: 'Natural Blunders'

By Mary Eisenhart

Sarah Wagner/Patricia Sweetow

This exhibition takes on "our traditionally Western adversarial relationship to nature," from voracious exploitation to catastrophic pollution to cloning and engineering of artificial life-forms. The resulting works are spooky, creepy, sometimes monstrous and definitely provocative.

11 a.m.-4 p.m. Tues.-Sun. Through March 20. De Saisset Museum, Santa Clara University, 500 El Camino Real, Santa Clara. (408) 554-4528. www.scu.edu/desaisset.
